BAKU CITY TOUR

Breakfast in Hotel. Our tour program starts with Old City or Inner City is the historical core of Baku, The Old City is the most ancient part of Baku, including the palace of the Shirvanshahs and Maiden Tower, to be classified as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. The street runs through the city's downtown from west to east. It begins from Abdulla Shaig Street, in mountainous part of the city and ends at railroad bed on Sabit Orujov Street, near a monument to Shah Ismail Khatai in Black City. The square was previously called Parapet and is often referenced to by the same name now. The name of the fountains square derives from the presence of dozens of fountains throughout the square first constructed during Soviet rule of Azerbaijan. The square is a public gathering place, especially after business hours and during the weekend. Tour continues with the visit to the charming example of modern architecture - The Heydar Aliyev Center a 57,500 m2 building complex in Baku, Azerbaijan designed by Iraqi-British architect Zaha Hadid and noted for its distinctive architecture and flowing, curved style that eschews sharp angles. The center is named after Heydar Aliyev, the first secretary of Soviet Azerbaijan from 1969 to 1982, and president of Azerbaijan Republic from October 1993 to October 2003. (Photoshoot outside). Pass by Carpet Museum which displays Azerbaijani carpets and rug items of various weaving techniques and materials from various periods. At the time of establishing, it was the only museum that was dedicated to the art of carpet weaving. Pass by "Little Venice" in Baku Boulevard which is a small town built in 1960. The town has two large and several small islands. Boats are provided for 4 people: one is designed for guide and the rest - for passengers. Overnight at Hotel.

DAY 3

ABSHERON TOUR

Tour starts with Ateshgah (Fire Worshipers Temple) Based on Persian and Indian inscriptions, the temple was used as a Hindu and Zoroastrian place of worship. Atash is the Persian word for fire. The pentagonal complex, which has a courtyard surrounded by cells for monks and a tetra pillar-altar in the middle, was built during the 17th and 18th centuries. Trip to Fire Mountain - Yanardag a mountain on Absheron peninsula, 25 km from north of Baku. Literally, word Yanardag means Blazing mountain. Blazing bodies of flame dance on stones and floor. Yanar dog is a natural gas fire which blazes continuously on a hillside on the Absheron Peninsula on the Caspian Sea near Baku, the capital of Azerbaijan, which itself is known as the land of fire.
